Large Foreign Selling Orders in All the Opening, Together With News of a De Market its Declining Tendency-Cubus Situation, With its Chances of Complications Over the Competitor Prisoners Cuts a Great Figure-Bonds

New olirk, May 11 .- A general decline in prices averaging more than % per cent was recorded today and the market displayed more features of interest Commercial agent to note the effects, or than in several days previous. The above average loss was shown after a small general rally from the lowest, dur time card, however, came flying into ing the intense duliness which prevailed Wichita at 12:20 yesterday and it came after midday. The room traders left like a cyclone. It was a mighty pretty the street rather bearish in their extrain, nicely made-up and supplied with beautiful cars. When it stopped at the depot with the familiar cochu cochu cochu the spectators waved their caps and shouted hurran for George Gould interests. The chief impetus to the decline was supplied by large foreign selling orders in all the London favorsenger trains. Mr. J. P. McCann, the New York City traveling passenger agent of the road stepped from the rilyer" and was warmly greeted. He at once made himself at home in Wichland to and talked with the people in that admirable familiar and courteous manner which characterizes a brains but. cub and talked business prospects with them in a way that made them believe that the Missouri Pacific has the wel-fers of its patrons at heart. Mr. Me-Cann not only can talk business, but he with the sentiments, but the plain fact can tell a rare story and although he was in the city only a few hours he rade more friends at the Commercial club than a man with a less genial dispersion could make in a month. George Gould is Mr. McCann's ideal week, hot for the next week ther is railroad man. He has been with the little better outlook for the exchange Goulds twenty-seven years or more, and when a man is in the service of two generations he naturally thinks there are no people like them. He thinks much of the credit for the new enterprise is also due to Vice-President Warner, General Manager Dodridge and General Passenger Agent H. C. Tounsend, from whom he had a letter of introduction to the editor of the Eagle. editor of the Eagle.
